MICHIGAN HAPPENINGS.

EVENTS AND INCIDENTS THAT HAVE LATELY OCCURRED.

An interesting summary of the more important happenings of our neighbors, including deaths, marriages, and general news notes.
—The engine house in the Salisbury mine, at Ishpeming, has been destroyed by fire. Loss about $35,000.
—At a recent meeting of the directors of the well-known religious resort, Simpson Park, held at Romeo last week, the date of the annual camp-meeting was voted for August 6 to 11, inclusive. Simpson Park Association is a Methodist organization located one and a half miles northwest of Romeo.

—Mrs. Lucinda Reid, living near Romeo, Macomb County, who was seriously shot in the intestine by the accidental explosion of a revolver a few weeks ago, has fully recovered her usual health. This is the second case on record in the State. Dr. Greenfield, the attending physician, gave the particulars of his operation to the members of the State Medical Association at their recent meeting held at Kalamazoo. It was listened to with deep interest by every medical man present.

—At a special election in Ishpeming there was a majority for issuing bonds for $35,000 to procure water from Lake Sault.
—Bay City's cash contributions to the flood sufferers reach $1,400.

—John D. Molony, of Detroit, has secured an option on the plants of the Bay City and West Bay City Brewing Companies, in the interest of the Eastern syndicate.

—The work of rebuilding with brick the business block destroyed by fire at Kalkaska, in March last, has commenced.

—Prof. G. R. Catton has been re-elected as principal of the Kalkaska schools. This is his fifth year.

—One hundred and fifty delegates attended the State Convention of the German Workmen's Society at Ionia. C. G. Breunau, of Saginaw, presided. The President's report presented shows a membership at last report of 6,119; new members, 371; withdrawn, 43; expelled, 163; died, 72; present membership, 6,955; net increase of membership, 276.

—Treasurer Tuller's report shows receipts of $39,739.07 and disbursements of $24,116.48, with a balance on hand of $15,622.59, a due from local bodies, $875.60. Next year's convention will be held at Ludington.

—The State Hotel Keepers' Association met at Detroit last week, and indulged in a good deal of general hotel discussion.

—Lilly Cook, aged 82 years, and a resident of Saginaw County for nearly fifty years, died at East Saginaw last week.

—John Drahner, an Oakland County planter, died suddenly at Oxford a few days ago.

—Fire at Ishpeming, gutted the McKee block, occupied by stores and offices, causing a loss of $10,000; fully covered by insurance.

—The Michigan Salt Association has reduced the price of salt to 52 cents per barrel in order to force opponents to the proposed salt union into it. When in March last annual contracts were made by the association twenty-three manufacturing firms in the State refused to continue their membership, and have since been manufacturing and selling at the rates obtained by the association. It is to punish these offenders the present cut was made.

—The son assigned by the Senate for repelling the divorce law, says a letter from Lansing, was that the great majority of divorces granted in Michigan were really on account of incompatibility, and the power given judges to forbid them from remarrying within two years was liable to prove a hardship to many men and women guilty of no offense, and who might be much happier by a second marriage.

—General Alger, being asked by a Detroit reporter the meaning of the reports which have recently appeared in print to the effect that he had announced his candidacy for President in 1892, replied as follows:

"There is no truth whatever in the story. I have received numerous cuttings from the newspapers in which it has been published, and I am a candidate and a great deal more of rubbish of this nature. I believe I should be the motor of a local newspaper, and I am glad to be in judgment, in common with the rest of mankind, but I am a consummate fool. I deny, and would be glad to have the chance of the person who was no indifferent. You are entirely wrong in my belief that the report is entirely untrue."

—At Bay City, the 4-year-old son of J. McPhail was run over by an omnibus and fatally injured.

—Miss Eva Ousick, of Leno, only 19 years old, has become an evangelist of the Free Methodist Church, and she pictures the fate of the wicked with as bold a hand as ever Jonathan Edwards boasted.

—Detroit Free Press: The prospects are good for plenty of fruit in some parts of the fruit belt. The crop of small fruits will be light, on account of the cold rains and little sunshine. The crop of peaches in Berrien County will be large, from the present prospect, but farther north, about Saugatuck, the crop will be very light.

—The graying has been found lately in several Upper Peninsula streams, and the fear that this fish is becoming extinct is relieved, says a Marquette sportsman.

ON GETTYSBURG FIELD.

PERPETUATING THE MEMORY OF MICHIGAN'S BRAVE SONS.

Ceremonies of Unveiling the Monuments.—The Granite Slabs Described.—Michigan Regiments that Participated in the Great Battle.

(LETTER FROM GETTYSBURG, PA.)
Wednesday, the 13th of June was Michigan's day on the historic battlefield of Gettysburg. It was the day when the brave sons of the Wolverine State, who had fought in the great battle of July 3, 1863, were to have their names perpetuated on the granite slabs which were to be unveiled on this day.

—An average of forty-six vessels a day passed through the Soo Canal during the month of May. This beats the record of all previous years by long odds.

—The effect on Alpena City to decide the question of bonding the city for $15,000 for erecting a new High School took place last week. The total vote cast was only 100, of which 180 were in favor of the bonds, and 214 were against. The bonding scheme was therefore lost by a majority of 28. There is a strong feeling in Alpena against issuing bonds of any description. Pay as you go is the sentiment of the majority.

—One of the most remarkable divorce suits of the century has been instituted at Detroit. Mrs. James Phyling recently began action against her husband, charging desertion, and praying for a decree, with alimony. Now comes the husband, who files an answer in which he sets forth that he fell in love with the woman who is now his wife because of her luxuriant hair, and frequently told her so. After the marriage, which occurred a year ago, he found that every reference to her hair caused her to become angry, and he noticed that she would never make her toilet in his presence, and on one day he climbed upon a chair, looked over the transom of his wife's boudoir, and discovered that her ringlets were hanging on the back of a chair. The woman herself was built as the palm of her hand. Phyling shrieked and his wife fainted. When she recovered she explained that she had lost her hair in a fire, but no explanation would satisfy him, and he left his wife in the possession of their home, taking up quarters himself in another part of the city. He says he cannot live with her.

—The East Saginaw Courier prints a basis of agreement among representative business men of both sides of the river for consolidation of the Saginaws. Under this proposal, when carried into effect, a city limit to cost $250,000 is to be located about one mile fourth of Genesee avenue on the East Saginaw side of the river and nearly opposite the business center of Saginaw River. Provision is also made for an iron bridge to cross the river to the east side from the foot of Court street, Saginaw City. The consolidation is to take effect March 31, 1891, and the new city is to be composed of fifteen wards, nine on the east and six on the west side of the river.

—There are about 130,000 acres of non-resident and unoccupied lands in Isabella county at present, says the Isabella County Enterprise. This comprises less than one-third of the county, and very much, if not all, will make excellent farms.

—Washington telegram: "It will be some months before Robert McKinstry's term as Pen on Agent at Detroit will expire, and the Senators have agreed with Corporal Tanner to leave that crippled veteran in undisturbed possession of his office."

—Bay City is frightened at the prospective benefits which will accrue to the metropolitan of the Saginaw Valley by the municipal union of the two Saginaws, and a movement is on foot to secure a similar consolidation of the two Bay Cities.

—There has been a local paving-ring in Detroit, but its power has been broken. Last week the Board of Public Works opened bids for paving and repaving eighteen streets, and in not a single instance when the specifications call for cedar blocks was the highest bid above $1.07 per square yard. Six weeks ago, before outside contractors appeared, the Detroit contractors were bidding from $1.00 to $1.05 per square yard, and got it, too. The break was because contractors from Chicago, Saginaw, Jackson, and other outside cities entered into competition; notwithstanding attempts to buy them off.

—Griffin, Wainor, Hunt & Berry, for the Moses W. Field estate, began suit in the United States Court at Detroit last week, against the Berkshire Life Insurance Company of Pittsfield, Mass., on two policies taken out by Mr. Field. One is for $5,000, dated December 18, 1879, and the other for $3,000, dated February 28, 1880. The estate demanded payment of the company, which was refused on the ground that the policies had been assigned to Mrs. Mary H. Plunkett of New York, who has achieved fame by her peculiar notions of marriage and divorce. Another suit was begun against the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company of Springfield, Mass., on a $10,000 policy, dated July 31, 1888, on which payment to the estate was refused because it was assigned to Mrs. Mary Goring, who has figured so extensively in Mr. Field's affairs.

—Eden, a small station on the Michigan Central Railroad, four miles south of Maroon, was the scene of a shooting affray last week. A. C. Sutherland, agent and telegraph operator there, was the party who did the shooting, and Eliza Douglas, a son of Geo. Douglas, owner of the grain elevator there, was the one who was shot. Sutherland is a very quiet and inoffensive young man, and has the respect of the citizens of Eden. He says he acted solely in self-defense. Douglas was probably a d—.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

SERIOUS SUBJECTS CAREFULLY AND ABLY CONSIDERED.

A Scholarly Exposition of the Lesson—Thoughts Worthy of Calm Reflection—Matters of the Study of the Scriptures—Time Well Spent.

The lesson for Sunday, June 23, may be found in Mark 1:1-14.

Says the critical Ewald: "Nothing stands more historically certain than that Jesus rose from the dead and appeared again to his followers." Says the candid Arnold: "I know of nothing in the history of mankind which is proven by better and fuller evidence of every sort to the mind of a fair inquirer." Think of it. The malice of the Jew and the might of the Roman were arrayed against him. He was crucified to the sight of all, his side pierced by the lance of the soldier, his decess witnessed by Pilate's centurion, was buried in the light of day in Joseph's well-known garden, and was raised again to life.

When they looked upon the living Jesus, they were again made happy in their condition here. Looking up, they saw that it was the same Jesus who had been crucified. The resurrection was a great thing. It was the first step in the redemption of the world. It was the first step in the redemption of the world. It was the first step in the redemption of the world.

POLITICAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

President Harrison gave $350.00 to the Johnstown sufferers, and ex-president Cleveland's donation to the Charleston sufferers was $10.00.

From the small space our democratic contemporaries devoted last week to Decoration day ceremonies, it is evident they do not take much stock in that day. This is a fact that we have heard commented upon by many old veterans.—Cheboygan Tribune.

Rev. Wm. Putnam will orate in Gaylord on the Fourth. The Elder is an able and talented speaker, and being a survivor of the war and thoroughly imbued with the spirit of liberty and patriotism, will no doubt do himself proud on the occasion.—Ontonagon Co. Herald.

The State weekly crop bulletin gives the temperature for the week at 60.3° or 4.3° below normal. The rainfall was .50 inches above and sunshine below the average. Wheat, oats and grass are doing finely, but corn is still backward. Outworn and potato bugs are working vigorously. All fruits are doing well, peaches and plums promising more than an average crop.

The Superintendent of the Census has issued a circular letter to the medical and surgical practitioners throughout the country asking their co-operation in the preparation of the mortality and vital statistics for the next national enumeration. Books of registry can be obtained upon application to the Census Office at Washington. This is a most valuable service and will be glad to help on.

One hundred and seventy-two out of the 190 students at the state agricultural college, have asked for the removal of Prof. Johnson, but he has been so good a farmer that the board of agriculture will probably keep him, just the same. These rural kids will find out after a while that the agricultural college isn't run for the students but the students for the college.—Det. News.

A woman who was recently brought before a Detroit judge for stealing from her husband, was discharged, the judge deciding that a woman cannot steal from her husband, or rather that stealing under those circumstances is not stealing under the eyes of the law. Ladies who go through their husbands' pockets for small change, should paste this decision in their bonnets.

Dakota state conventions are constituted as follows: South Dakota, 53 republicans, 22 democrats; North Dakota, 54 republicans, 21 democrats; 4 prohibition. Minority representation was allowed, which accounts for the large number of democrats. It is said both bodies will stand high in point of character and ability, a good deal of pride in making selections having been displayed on all hands.—Detroit Tribune.

The leading newspapers of the South are appealing earnestly for contributions for the Pennsylvania sufferers. So far, the responses are not very hearty, but the press is certainly doing its duty.—Detroit Tribune. The people of the South are continually begging for money for either business or benevolent purposes, and they neither treat capitalists decently or reciprocate generously when called upon as in the case above mentioned. Their politics stands in the way of their generosity.

EDITOR AVANCE—Please notice in your valuable paper, that there will be a "Grand Union School Picnic" in the Grove near the residence of H. S. Buck, in Maple Forest township on Thursday, July 4th 1889. A general and cordial invitation is extended to all the schools in the county to take part in the same. Teachers will please be kind enough to have their schools prepared to take an active part. We trust we may see all the children present. Everybody is invited to come and please do not forget to bring your baskets.
By order of Committee.

Grover Cleveland sends his regrets to Governor Rice expressing deep sorrow that he cannot accept the governor's invitation to attend the Gettysburg monument dedication, but must content himself "with an expression of deep interest in all that tends to perpetuate the memory of the heroic deeds and the sacrifices of our soldier dead." Fine words, indeed, and for a man who let his substitute die in the porch; for a man who went fishing on a Memorial day; for a man whose insulting veto messages and pension vetoes are still fresh in the minds of the soldiers. Fine words are plentiful. But actions speak louder.—Detroit Tribune.

WASHINGTON LETTER

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, June 14, '89.
The President has positively and finally refused to take any part in the factional quarrel of the republican party of Virginia. He has been visited this week by strong delegations from both sides as well as by a number of prominent individuals. To all he has given the same answer. "As President of the United States, I do not feel authorized to interfere in political quarrels in any State. Wherever there is a divided party my only feeling is indifference tinged with disgust, and I must decline to accept any responsibility for the sufferings caused by lack of harmony."

Secretary Rusk says he is very doubtful of his being able to accept any of the many recent invitations to Agricultural Fairs which he has received, owing to the fact that he is devoting every moment of his spare time to the perfection of a plan of reorganization of the Department of Agriculture which he hopes to submit to the President with his annual report this fall. He will, however, endeavor to have the department represented at most of the largest exhibitions. The election of Calvin S. Brice, of Ohio, the "rainbow chaser" of the last campaign, to succeed the late W. H. Barnum, as chairman of the National democratic committee, gives great satisfaction to the republicans, but the democrats do not seem to like it over much.

The commission of Mr. Zimmerman recently appointed postmaster at Cannelton, Ind., has been "hung up" and it is extremely doubtful if he ever gets it. This state of affairs is caused by no fault of Mr. Zimmerman, against whom no complaint has been made, but by a mistake on the part of the President, who thinking the office was presidential, made a memorandum directing the appointment of Mr. De Launt, who was removed from the position early in the Cleveland administration, and against whose removal he, at that time (1885) a Senator, made a strong speech. In the meantime assistant postmaster general Clarkson had on recommendation of Representative Posey appointed Zimmerman to the office, which is in the fourth class of the presidential list. As soon as Mr. Clarkson learned of the President's memorandum, he ordered the commission withheld and laid the facts before the President. It is thought that Mr. Zimmerman's appointment will be revoked and the place given to Mrs. De Launt.

Secretary Tracy has received a cablegram in cipher from Commander Kellogg who was sent to Hayti to report upon the condition of affairs there. What it contained is not known, but it created more or less commotion at both the Navy and State departments, and it is known that one war vessel has been ordered to go there at once, and that others will be sent.

Evergreen Tea.

The Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. church will give an Evergreen Tea social in the store room formerly occupied by H. Joseph, on Tuesday evening, the 25th. Supper and Ice Cream are the attractions. All are cordially invited to attend.

Rev. Wm. Putnam preached a very powerful Scriptural sermon in the Baptist church last Sunday morning. Though in the autumn of life, his sermons are full of vigor and power, reflecting richly the stores of a well-filled mind of gospel lore.—Ontonagon Co. Herald.

The Delinestor.

The Delinestor for the month of July has been received. This publication is a monthly magazine devoted to Fashion and Fine Arts. Each issue contains illustrations and descriptions of current and incoming styles for Ladies', Misses', and Children's articles on the newest dress fabrics, and novelties in trimmings, and representations of the latest ideas in Millinery, Linen and Fancy Work. In addition there are papers by practical writers on the household and its proper maintenance, and a selection of entertaining and instructive reading on the elegancies of life.

Terms 15 cents for single numbers or $1.00 per year. Subscriptions received at this office.

A new volume of PETERSON'S begins with the July number. Each fresh volume of this magazine offers new and varied attractions. It numbers among its contributors some of the leading writers of the country, and its prose and poetry are always of the best. In the number and quality of its engravings, "Peterson" cannot be approached by any but the art journals. The fashions are always the newest and most reliable, while in matters of home interest and household affairs generally, "Peterson" is an infallible guide. We heartily recommend this favorite periodical to any of our lady readers who are not now taking it. Terms: Two Dollars a year or One Dollar for six months, with greatly reduced rates to clubs. Sample copies free to those desiring to get up clubs. Address Peterson's Magazine, Philadelphia, Pa.

A little Danish boy, about twelve years of age, whose name we were unable to learn, fell off the dam at the mill yesterday and would have drowned but for the timely aid of Shoppingtons and Melvin Bates, who rescued him in about five feet of water under the bridge, nearly exhausted.

The Strawberry and Ice Cream Social given by the ladies of the Presbyterian Society, last Friday evening, was a complete success both socially and financially, the receipts amounting to $43.00. The ladies desire to tender their sincere thanks to those who attended for their generous patronage, and to Mr. Joseph, who so kindly donated them the use of his vacant store.

Card of Thanks.

At the last regular review of Crawford Tent, No. 102, K. O. T. M., held on Wednesday Evening, June 13th, it was unanimously decided to tender a vote of thanks to Miss Vera Jones and Miss Judith Blakeslee, for the artistic manner in which they draped our charter, and a committee of two were appointed to convey to the ladies the thanks of the Tent.

On a piece of wrapping paper she read of Dr. King's New Discovery, and got a sample bottle; it helped her, she bought a large bottle, it helped her more, bought another and grew better fast, continued its use and is now strong, healthy, rosy, plump, weighing 110 pounds.
